

Stefanos Tsioudoulos was born in Ioannina in 1968 . He studied painting at the Athens School of Fine Arts, in the workshop of Dimitris Mytaras. Doctor of the Department of History and Archaeology of the School of Philosophy of the University of Ioannina (2005), he has been teaching Material Culture, Folklore Art and Painting as an Assistant Professor at the Department of Fine Arts and Art Sciences at the School of Fine Arts of the University of Ioannina. He has presented his work in five personal painting exhibitions and has also taken part in numerous collective shows. He has written the books The Painting of the houses of Zagori, late 18th-early 20th century, A historical and cultural approach, Rizarios Foundation Publications, Athens 2009 and Punishment, the dark side of sexuality, Love scenes and their silent narratives in representations of hell, 13th– 19th century, Futura Publications, Athens 2012. He was granted an award for his first book by the Academy of Athens in 2011.